Scout Camp Purpose Told

Over a thousand scouts and leaders in the county are making preporations today for the annual camporee to be held May 8 and 9, at "Happy Land," near Redwood City.

This year's Scouting derby will see 750 scouts competing in teams of from six to nine members for the championship of the San Mateo county council. A handsome trophy will be given the winner.

The council objectives for the camporee according to leaders are as follows:

To demonstrate the value of the Boy Scout program as a means of building citizenship.

To interest new men in the movement and to give them a vision of their own possibilities of leadership among boys.

To impress further upon present leaders the worth-whileness of the work they are doing.

To interest boys who have not yet experienced the life of a Scout.

To stimulate troop activity.

To interest churches, schools, and other prospective sponsoring institutions in the scout movement.

To bring to light the importance of the scout program to the parents of the community.

Neol Arthur and his camporee committee have completed plans for what promises to be the biggest camping meet in the history of the council.

Michael Lundin Dies After Long Illness

Michael Lundin, 43, Whipple road, Redwood City, died Monday at Community Hospital, terminating a long illness. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ellen Lundin.

'Y' MEMBERS TO CAMP OUT

Twenty members of Washington School's "Y" Club will enjoy this week-end at Camp YuMiCiA in Memorial Park, leaving the school at 3 p.m. Friday and returning Saturday afternoon. Club Advisor Jack Chappell and "Y" Secretary Lawrence Gould will accompany the group.

Field Worker Swept to Death Off Pedro Point

Another victim stood added today to the list of those who have perished while fishing at Pedro Point.

Santos Ollero, 23, Pedro Valley field worker, was drowned at the point late Monday afternoon after a large comber had washed him off a rock.

Efforts of two fellow Filipino companions, both unidentified, to rescue Ollero from the surf, were futile, according to the report made to Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri by Special Deputy Emmett Winters.

Ollero lived at the Old Adobe House in the valley. His only surviving relative, according to Nieri, is a brother, Ordres Ollero, living in the Philippines.

Up to late today the body had not been recovered, and authorities said it was doubtful whether it ever would be. In most of the drowning cases at Pedro Point, the bodies have been swept out to sea and never recovered.

Car Thieves Win Leniency

Admitted to probation for two years on condition that they serve terms in the county jail, George Kilgore, alias Jack Murphy, 21, and Enos Eubanks, 25, both San Franciscans, rejoiced today at having escaped sentence to San Quentin prison for car theft.

Judge Maxwell McNutt, upon recommendation of Probation Officer Francis Robinson, made Kilgore's probation conditional on a year's term in the local jail, while Eubanks, who had no previous record, need serve only six months.

Kilgore had served a term at Ione reformtaory.

The pair were arrested by San Francisco police March 20 after an all-night chase by county highway patrolmen and peninsula and bay city police.

Kilgore and Eubanks stole one car, abandoned it after wrecking it, and then took another in Millbrae. A highway patrol radio message resulted in capture of the pair by Ingleside police.

Flagmen on 2 Streets Would Be Eliminated

Full Program Evolved For City; Next Move Up to Railroad

Installation by the Southern Pacific of some $20,000 worth of new grade crossing signal equipment with subsequent complete elimination of human flagmen at two of Redwood City's crossings and partial elimination of the flagmen at two other crossings was agreed upon by the city council Monday as the best immediate means of providing more protection at the local grades.

The decision to recommend a complete program for improvement of the crossings was reached after the council had discussed the situation for two hours with R. D. Moore, safety engineer, and F. L. Guy, division engineer, of the Southern Pacific.

While the two officials could not commit the Southern Pacific to the council's proposals, it was agreed to make the recommendations to the railway firm. If its approval is forthcoming, the suggestions then will be sent to the California Railroad Commission for approval before being put into effect.

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED

The program agreed upon for each crossing follows, as adopted unanimously by the council on motion of Councilman James M. Eva, second of George McNulty:

Rogers street: Leave as is except lower the signals to a height of nine feet, exchanging the high overhanging wig-wag signals for the lower type of upright signal.

Brewster street: Leave as is (with manually operated gates).

Broadway: Install flashing light, rotating stop banner signal with 2-train indicators, manually controlled from 6 a.m. to 12 midnight, with human flagman on duty between these hours. Between midnight and 6 a.m., the signals would be automatic, with no flagman on duty. A floodlight would be provided by the City of Redwood City to shine onto the flagman, who would, in the future, wear a white "Sam Brown" belt and a white cap, under terms of the proposal submitted.

Jefferson avenue: Same type of signal as at Broadway, semi-manually controlled by the Broadway watchman.

Maple street: Same type of signal, automatically controlled.

Main street: Same as at Broadway (signal with human flagman controlling the signal except between midnight and 6 a.m.).

Chestnut street: Same type of signal as at other crossings, automatically controlled.

$7680 ANNUAL SAVINGS

The changes, cost of which was roughly estimated by Engineer Moore at $20,000, will thus eliminate the three 8-hour shifts of flagmen at both Maple and Jefferson streets and eliminate one shift each at Broadway and Main. Savings from the elimination of these eight shifts daily will be $7680 per year, it was pointed out, since flagmen are paid $80 per month each.

Mental shocks to children may be as harmful as physical injuries, psychologists declare.

DOGGY DOG RATES SERVICE HERE

Sitting on that right hind leg in a position that no other wire hair terrier—or for that manner, no other dog—could duplicate, "Blarney" is often found sunning himself on the county jail steps. Because of his idiosyncracies, he has become a favorite in county courthouse circles.

'BLARNEY' CLAIMS OWN VALET

Terrier Has Run of County Courthouse, Jail

MAY VISIT SUPERVISORS NEXT

By FRED O. GLOVER

"Blarney" is his name, and besides being probably the only dog in Redwood City with a personal "valet" at his bark and call, he has a lot of unique idiosyncracies which mark him as a dog apart in the local canine world.

He's the little wire-haired terrier you may have seen sitting, as pictured here, in a ludicrous position on the county jail steps. Or perhaps you've seen him begging his way into the First National Bank. Or into the courthouse.

He is a familiar sight at all these places, and his mistress, Anne Ryan, 505 Marshall street, deputy county controller, wouldn't be surprised if any day he established himself as a regular spectator at the supervisors' proceedings. He's into everything else that goes on in Redwood City.

It's at the jail, however, that he rules supreme. And not among the deputies only, but back of the bars, in the realm of the prisoners.

Frequently "Blarney" scratches at the bastille outer door. Upon winning entrance, he trots right through to the inner door of the jail proper. And there he sits, expectantly, until Jailers Waldeck or Glennan use their big keys to give him entrance to a place usually shunned, rather than sought.

There, besides a lot of petting, a bath awaits him. He submits good-naturedly to the prisoners' valet efforts, but there is one rule they mustn't forget. He can be washed all over, except his paws. They must not be touched, or there follows a warning nip. Blarney makes no bones of being a "tender foot."

Recently Miss Ryan was surprised to find a note attached to the dog's collar, asking her to send some special soap to the prisoners so they might do a better job of washing the dog.

Next to jails, "Blarney" likes banks, and especially vaults. This leaning caused him to be locked in the county tax collector's vault one night. And on one hot day, after he had gained admittance to the First National Bank, he ensconced himself on top of some ledgers in the bank vault and refused to let the books be removed from beneath him.

Finally, laughingly, one of the bankers had to telephone the Ryans to come and get "Blarney" or the bank would have to charge vault space for him.

For some reason or other, "Blarney's" queer sitting "form" is one he also assumes when eating. He picks up his food from his pan, then backs up and sits down on a step or chair before he swallows. Maybe it's this sit-down strike business which has caught his fancy.

19 Peninsulans To Win Degrees

Nineteen San Mateo county students are listed among the total of 265 who are candidates for graduation from Stanford University at the close of the spring quarter.

By schools, they are:

Marshall Hughes, Redwood City, basic medical sciences.

Richard John Chard, Donald Roy Peterson and Ralph H. Talmage, all Redwood City, and Walter B. Powell, Burlingame, school of engineering.

Jesse Feldman, San Mateo, school of law, pre-legal curriculum.

Kessing Helen Moroney, San Mateo, school of letters.

William E. Howell, San Mateo, school of physical sciences, chemistry.

Betty-Jane Burke, San Mateo, school of social sciences.

Doris Carol Arkush, Charles W. Holmes and Martin J. Scatena, San Mateo; Herbert F. Charters, Woodside; Robert F. Edwards, Hillsborough, and Harold L. Potter, Burlingame, all school of social sciences, economics.

Raymond J. Daba, San Mateo, and Mary Irene Simpson, Burlingame, political science.

Marcia R. McFarland and Elisabeth Jane Weber, San Mateo, psychology.

MENLO PARK

Mrs. Frances Maloney of Menlo Park was honored by being elected for the second time to the office of chief director of the Past Presidents' Association of the Native Daughters of the Golden West at the general assembly held last Saturday and Sunday at Hotel Senator in Sacramento. Mrs. Maloney organized Association No. 9, which is comprised of all the past presidents of Native Daughter Parlors in San Mateo county.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gould of Redwood City, president of Association No. 9, Mrs. Isabelle Weeden Lindquist and Mrs. Catherine Derry accompanied Mrs. Maloney to Sacramento.

Mrs. George E. Russell is returning to Menlo Park to reside. She will occupy one of her cottages on the highway. Mrs. Russell was born and grew to womanhood in Menlo Park but has been away for many years, living in San Francisco and San Jose. Her husband, who died a few weeks ago, was a government gauger for more than 30 years.

Mrs. Staples, mother of Elizabeth Staples of Menlo Park, passed away in Los Angeles Monday, following a short illness. Mrs. Staples lived here with her daughter until a short time ago. She was well liked and beloved by all who knew her.

Roger Reynolds, nurseryman, is raising a great number of trees, plants and shrubbery for the San Francisco Fair in 1939. He has an order for all he can produce.

There are 30 dwellings being erected in Menlo Park and all of them have been rented before completion. Many more could be leased. The shortage of houses here is surprising.

Mrs. Dora Scott Devol and Mrs. Catherine Derry were chairmen for the dinner served by Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 443 Thursday night. They were assisted by the ladies of the auxiliary. Fire Chief Thomas Cuff made reservations for 75 members of the Northern California Fireman's Association, which met in Menlo Park Thursday.

Several members of Menlo Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, attended a meeting of Mountain View Parlor Wednesday night. Among those visiting the neighboring parlor were the Rev. Father Thomas McKeon, Charles Call and Bernard Larrecou.

A large delegation of Native Daughters from Menlo Parlor attended the official visit of Grand President Florence Boyle to Dolores Parlor in San Francisco Wednesday night.

Miss Minnie Finn is visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. W. DaMoth of Detroit, Michigan, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles O'Neil. She expects to remain here for awhile.

The local troop of Boy Scouts is planning a card party for the near future.

Mrs. Frances Harris Stent of Menlo Park is receiving a double set of congratulations, having become a grandmother twice in a week. A son was born April 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Somers (Katherine Stent) and an eight-and-a-half-pound boy April 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Woods (Frances Stent). The older of the two cousins arrived at the Post Street Hospital in San Francisco and the younger at the Mt. Zion.

Master Somers is also a grandson of Mrs. George B. Somers and the late Dr. Somers. His cousin's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William W. Woods.

Children of pre-schol age were given free health examinations at the annual summer roundup arranged by the Menlo Park Parent-Teacher Association yesterday at the Central School in Menlo Park.

Tests were given by Dr. R. J. Gerlough and Dr. Ruth Smith.

United Slashes Coast-to-Coast Airline Rates

Announcing its first coast-to-coast rate reduction since 1932, United Air Lines today declared that effective May 1st it will inaugurate a $149.50 fare between here and New York, a reduction of $10.05 over the current tariff.

The placing into service of larger, longer cruising range Douglas transports justified the reduced fare, according to S. A. Stimpson, district traffic manager.

"The new planes have double the capacity of the Boeing fleet we have used until the present time," said Stimpson. "Since we are able to increase our payloads and efficiency with the new equipment we are enabled to pass on to the traveling public some of the benefits."

All cities on the Pacific coast touched by United are common rate points and will share in the savings caused by the rate reduction. The 10 per cent discount allowed for round trip fares will still be effective under the new set-up, Stimpson said.

The new fare to Chicago will be $105, approximately 10 per cent less than the current rate.

Toastmasters Plan Election

Plans looking toward the nomination, election and seating of new officers were laid by the Toastmaster Club Monday night as they scheduled next Monday as time for report of a nomination committee and decided that installation would take place June 7, closing session of the club before summer vacation, at a "Ladies' Night."

Duncan Reynard will be in charge of arranging a program for that evening.

Martin Levy made his maiden speech before the club last night, speaking on "How Paper is Made" and explaining the various processes wood goes through until it becomes newsprint.

A. H. Sagehorn, in a talk on "Firebugs and Pyromaniacs," said that 20 to 30 per cent of all fire losses in the United States are incendiary.

"The Letdown" was chosen by B. E. Myers as the topic under which he presented to the club a plea to avoid slovenly speech, because it leads to mental laziness; to avoid careless thinking because it causes loss of civil liberties; and to avoid lowering one's standard of living because this may lead to a letdown in character.

In an impromptu talk, Fred O. Glover told "How Local News is Gathered," explaining the various sources in Redwood City and on the peninsula from which news is collected to provide coverage for a daily newspaper.

Chairman of the program was C. E. Holt.

Lomita Park Man Found Dead in Car

LOMITA PARK, Apr. 28—Lester Johnson, 31, San Marco avenue, Lomita Park, was found dead in his car in his garage under his home yesterday, when his wife, worried because he had not returned after a drinking party, set out to look for him.

Death was attributed to heart failure and acute indigestion caused by excessive drinking during the evening, an autopsy showed.

Court of Honor Features Camp

Troops 143 of Redwood City and 163 of Atherton held recognition today as the best-equipped units in the southern division following a week-end camporee here, one of the most successful in years, and preparatory to the county camporee to be held May 8 and 9 at "Happy Land" back of Redwood City.

J. Franklin Reid, scout field executive, was in general charge of the camporee, which saw 176 members of nine troops pitch their tents in vacant lots off California street.

Highlights of the camporee were the campfire and court of honor Saturday evening and the camp church service Sunday morning.

TWO CHURCH SERVICES

Protestant scouts heard Rev. Schuyler Pratt conduct the camp service, while their Catholic companions, in uniform, and under the direction of Scoutmaster Joseph I. Graham of the newly formed troop 120 and Mate Ray Torley of Sea Scout Ship No. 145, attended the 9 o'clock mass at the Catholic Church.

Nearly 600 persons saw the campfire ceremonies and program, Reid estimated. Besides the scout campers, 350 visitors and 100 extra scouts were present, he said. Impromptu stunts by the khaki-clad youngsters amused the crowd.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD

Presentation of the 1937 president's award for advancement and growth was made to troop 162 of Redwood City, 159 of Woodside, 107 of Menlo Park and 153 of San Carlos. Max Shaffer, Leland John, Floyd Beach and C. A. Dickinson are the scoutmasters of the respective troops honored.

Besides the presentation of a charter to cub pack troop 5 of Atherton, a charter marking 10-year service was given to Scoutmaster Beach's Menlo Park unit, while a five-year charter went to troop 160 of Redwood City, with Clyde Devine as scoutmaster.

CAMP TICKET GIVEN

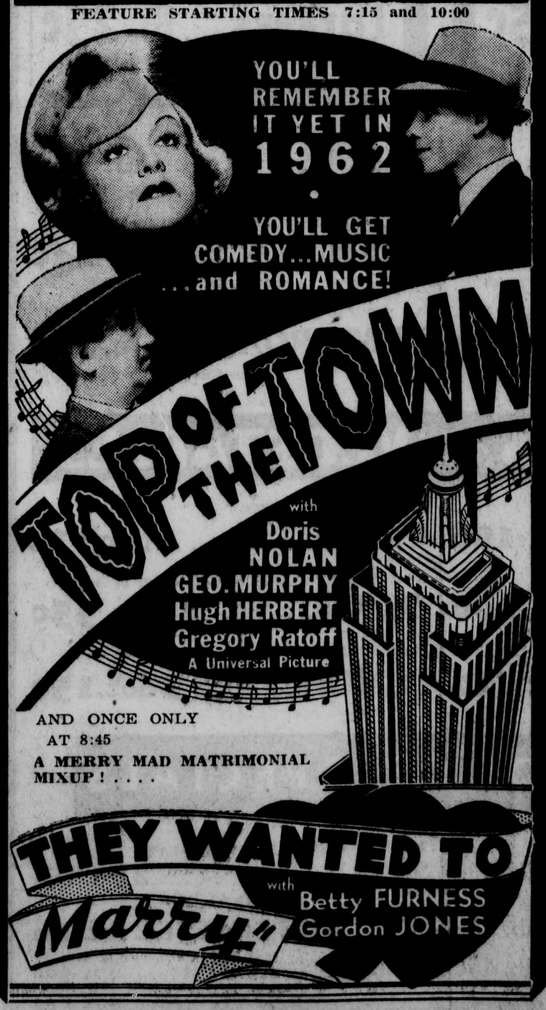

Claude Bergman, who won the recent recruiting contest, was presented with a two-week paid-up application to the county scouts' summer camp.

Reid said that the campfire program was dedicated to the wives of the southern division scoutmasters, who, as "scout widows," permit their husbands to spend so much time in scouting work.

Speaker at the campfire rites was Bert Werder, county fire warden. He talked on camping and outdoor life.

Twenty-two boys were presented with scout ranks as part of the court of honor proceedings.

Mississippi farm income in 1936 exceeded $300,000,000.

Sequoia Campus Day Planned for May 21

Planning an afternoon and evening of fun and festivity, Sequoia high school students are looking forward to May 21, which has been set as their annual "Campus Day." On that day, school will be dismissed at 11:30 a.m., with entertainment in the afternoon and a dance in the evening scheduled.

The afternoon program is under supervision of the boys' board of welfare; that for the evening is under direction of the girls, with the commissioners in charge of the dance.

RIFLE SHOOTING HIT

Rifle shooting assertedly going on in the Emerald Lake District caused a written protest to be filed with the board of supervisors here by the Highlands District Improvement Club. The club asked that action be taken to halt the illegal shooting, dangerous to residents.

POWER FIRM PAYS $12,250 BACK FRANCHISE TAX TO S. M.

SAN MATEO, April 28—Consummating negotiations over a four-and-one-half year period, the San Mateo City Council last night agreed to accept the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's franchise offer, with back payment of taxes over a four-year period.

Under the plan the utility will be granted a 50-year franchise. The city will receive $12,250 cash from the concern, which will cover the period from December 31, 1932, to July 1, 1937, in addition to taxes in the future.

At the same time the city will drop its suit filed several years ago to recover back franchise taxes.

It was estimated the city will receive approximately $3850 per year, considerably higher than the utility's original offer of $2160 per year.

The council also reconsidered the trailer ordinance adopted recently Time limit of three days allowed for each trailer to remain in the city will be extended to any 30 days in each six months.

Examinations for applicants for the position left vacant by City Clerk Ed Foster will be May 6 at 2 p.m. in San Mateo Junior College, under the supervision of a college professor, the council decided.

On May 10 the three high candidates will be interviewed by the council and the appointment will be made.

Local Woman's Kin Succumbs in Seattle

Word has been received here of the death last week in Seattle of August Latham, 72, father of Mrs. George Schroeder of Redwood City and Miss Leonie Latham of Seattle. Mr. Latham had had been a construction foreman for the Northern Pacific Railway for 14 years. Afterward he worked for a brick and tile company, but had been retired since 1931.

Foresters Plan Open House Here Friday Evening

Court Madrone No. 158, Foresters of America, plans an "open house" this Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock, with an entertainment, dancing and the serving of refreshments being the principal divertisement features of the evening.

In addition, grand officers from San Francisco will discuss the order and tell something of the Companions of the Forest of America, a circle of which is now in process of formation here.

The committee in charge includes Chris Stilleson, chairman; Joe A. Paron, Jerome F. Macdonald, John P. Clarkin, Eugene D. Badger, Herman E. Hinrichs, Roy Schrader, Joseph T. Clarkin, A. P. Jordan, Louis Rolla and George L. Solari.

The length of the Great Wall of China, including all spurs and loops, is estimated at 2500 miles.

Hand-Book Plans Mapped at Sequoia

Plans for drawing up a hand book for Sequoia high school students for next year were outlined by the Sequoia Hi-Y at a luncheon meeting. The book, to include general information about the school, will be published under sponsorship of the Hi-Y for use at the beginning of the 1937 fall term.

At a "sports night" program over the week-end, the Sequoia Hi-Y entertained boys of the Panther Hi-Y, 25 members of the two organizations enjoying an evening of soak out, basketball and other games in the Sequoia high school boys' gymnasium.

FREED ON LIQUOR CHARGES

MENLO PARK, April 27.—On the grounds of insufficient evidence, Judge Edward I. McAuliffe of Redwood City, sitting in police court here, today found Louis Welter, 36, San Francisco, not guilty of selling liquor without a license. Welter was arrested March 17 by state board of equalization agents who pursued him in a half-hour chase through Menlo Park, Atherton and Redwood City.

Easiest way to Pacific Northwest and ALASKA

You can see Alaska in your TWO WEEK VACATION if you go to the Pacific Northwest by fast S.P. train

Alaska and its sky-scraping mountains, inland seas and glaciers isn't as far away as you imagine. You can see it (and a good share of the Evergreen Northwest) within a two week vacation. Here's how:

TAKE one of our fast air-conditioned trains over the scenic Shasta Route. Next day, you're in the Pacific Northwest. Spend your whole vacation here if you like or

BOARD one of the many fine cruise ships that sail up the smooth Inland Passage. It's a lazy, luxurious roundtrip to Alaska via some of the grandest scenery in the world.

THEN, when your vacation is over, return by train. The whole trip (either to Pacific Northwest or Alaska) can be only a matter of two weeks. Of course, you can spend more time in the Evergreen Playground or on the Alaska cruise if you wish.

RAIL AND STEAMER FARES are very low. Any S. P. Agent will be glad to give you information about an Alaska trip, make train and steamer reservations, etc.
